

Pass along some kindness,
Give a little love,
Warm the heart of someone,
You are thinking of.

This is a Random Act you see,
Inside is a gift for you,
Fill the bag with something else,
Then share with someone new.

A card, a treat, or something small,
Love doesn't cost a dime,
Together we can spread some joy,
One Act at a time
